ABOUT

The Urban League of Metropolitan Saint Louis Women's Business Center (formerly Grace Hill Women's Business Center) is a public/private partnership with the U.S. Small Business Administration and is dedicated to providing micro-business development for aspiring entrepreneurs, with a primary focus on minority women in the community.

Partnering with other institutions and community organizations, the Center is able to offer a variety of programs and services to further individuals' aims of entrepreneurship. The WBC offers comprehensive services to support all stages of entrepreneurship.

MISSION

Our mission is to empower, engage, and advocate for small business owners by connecting them to tools, resources, and partners committed to quality in every aspect of business development. We support entrepreneurs on their journey to become self-sustaining and successful contributors to their communities.
